2444	9 January 2000	SELL	I have inherited a Canon AE-1 camera with Canon lenses FD 75-200 mm 1:4.5, a Hoya 52mm Skylight (1B) lenses, a cleaning kit, has battery, and a long silver metallic piece that I believe is used to click to perhaps set a timer before a photo is taken and it also includes a very nice padded camera bag, and it also has a Canon Lens Hood BS-52. I know very little about cameras. It appears to work all right but I have not tested it with film. The camera looks nice with minor descratches on bottom. Both set of lenses look nice and no apparent scartches and such. If interested make me an offer. I live in S.E. Georgia (USA) email is 2talls@breezenet.net Thank you! - Carol Surzinski <2talls@breezenet.net>
