3647	10 March 1999	SELL	I have the very rare Infrared filter, the Hoya RM100. These are one step above the RM90, but are not available to the public. The RM90 is no longer available either, and last sold for nearly $200. The RM100 is rated at 980nm, which means you will get the BEST IR photography possible. These filters were custom made by a contact I have. they are fitted into a 37mm ring. I am asking $215 each, which includes shipping. I only have 3 left, so hurry before they are GONE. If you have any questions, please feel free to email me. Thank you. - Michael S. <tigermike@earthlink.net>
